

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clearly an example of the misuse of public airwaves. This kind of political manipulation of elections by Broadcasters who have been granted by the people use of the airwaves is a frightening development. It should not be permitted and clearly their licenses should be withdrawn if they proceed.